Happy Tails Story:

Thanks to your support, Sgt. Shane and Julia boarded a plane together out of Egypt.

Dear Friend,

We did it, Friend! Thanks to your support, Sgt. Shane and Julia boarded a plane together out of Egypt. Over 9,000 miles later and just a couple hours ago, I met them when they arrived safely at New York's JFK airport. Sgt. Shane's wife, Rebecca, was also there with me. When Sgt. Shane and Julia arrived we all exchanged hugs. Julia couldn't stop wiggling and wagging. After years of Sgt. Shane wishing and hoping he could save her - they are together again. It was absolutely a fabulous feeling and I hope I'm able to share some of that exhilaration and joy with you through this email.

With a joyful heart,
